Home Makeovers With Genuine Service

Dale Gruber is a genuine down-to-earth central Minnesotan. Dale's values reflect his roots, something you'll know the minute you have the opportunity to chat with him. He and his wife make their home right here in the St. Cloud area and have three grown daughters.

Dale says he wants to earn your respect and trust by listening to each customer's needs. He calls himself a "bit of a watch dog," making sure everything is done to the customer's satisfaction. Dale's customers are both commercial businesses and residential homeowners, and his work can be seen all over the area. The commercial side of the business is Dale Gruber Construction Inc. For homeowners, Dale's residential remodeling business is Home Check Plus, Inc.

Home Check Plus gives Dale the opportunity to work for homeowners in the same way he'd do it for his own family. "Our customers ask us to 'get it right the first time.' We don't take any shortcuts on quality, but always keep the customer's budget in mind."

Dale prides himself on precision, using the finest quality materials and keeping his customers informed on every job big or small. "With home remodeling we are invading a customer's private space, so scheduling is a top priority at Home Check Plus. We plan and write up a schedule for each job so our customers know when each step of the project takes place."

Dale Gruber is a member of the Central Minnesota Builders Association, NAHB Remodelers, NAHB Life Board, and a past president of CMBA and the Builders Association of Minnesota. His businesses are OSHA certified, which means that he watches out for everyone, including his employees.

Dale also volunteers time and services on a regular basis for local projects, such as helping to build the gift shop at Clemens Gardens in St. Cloud, homes for Habitat for Humanity, and a scholarship for the St. Cloud Technical College, his alma mater.
